

Organisation of your stay

In addition to my translation and interpreting services I would be happy to take over the complete organisation of your stay in any German- or Russian-speaking region.

Whether you are seeking a place for a conference, need an airport transfer or intend to get in touch with a particular institution or a local company, your organisation will be dealt with the utmost care including all your expectations.